When we collect personal data directly from you via contact forms or when you sign up for Lundbeck Magazine or Investor notifications, you provide the personal data voluntarily. You are not obligated to provide the information to us. The consequences of not providing the personal data are that we cannot provide the service or assist you in relation to the inquiry you request.

Use of data processors

Lundbeck uses data processors (e.g. hosting companies, IT providers, including for cookie purposes, consultants, business partners and members of our Lundbeck Group), and your personal data may therefore be transferred to, processed and stored by these third parties engaged by Lundbeck, who will process your data on Lundbeck's behalf and assist in the provision of the content and services you use or request. These third-party providers will be obligated by Lundbeck to safeguard the confidentiality of your data and to take adequate technical and organizational measures to protect your data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss or alteration, unauthorized disclosure or abuse, or other unlawful processing.

Transfer of data to countries outside the EU/EEA

We may transfer personal data to other countries, some of which have not yet been determined by the European Commission to have an adequate level of data protection. Lundbeck will ensure that such transfer(s) will be carried out in accordance with the applicable data protection legislation, including the GDPR.

Transfers to countries outside the EU/EEA may take place if the recipient adheres to the EU-US Privacy Shield (if the transfer is to the United States of America) or when ensuring that the recipient enters into the EU Standard Contractual Clauses. The transfer can also be made if the recipient is located in a country providing an adequate level of data protection (see the full list of these 'secure countries' on the EU Commissions' website). If your personal data is transferred to other Lundbeck affiliates, the transfer will be based on the Lundbeck Intra Group Agreements (or the Binding Corporate Rules, once approved). More information can be obtained by contacting Lundbeck's on dataprivacy@lundbeck.com.

For PV data which Lundbeck transfers to health authorities in countries outside the EU/EEA, the legal transfer basis is Article 49(1)(d) of the GDPR (transfer is necessary for important reasons of public interest).
